THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.23316 OF 2002

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed for a writ of mandamus to declare the action of respondent Nos.1 and 2 in interfering with the civil dispute between the petitioner and respondents 3 and 4 as illegal and for a consequential direction not to interfere with the said dispute.

Heard Shri S.V.Ramana, learned counsel for the petitioner. No one appeared for the respondents.

In the counter-affidavit filed by the Inspector of Police, I Town Police Station, Anantapur, it is averred that when respondent No.3 approached respondent No.1 with a written complaint stating that she is facing threat to her life from the petitioner, and making a request for giving police protection, the first respondent forwarded the said complaint to the Sub-Inspector of Police, I Town Police Station for taking necessary action and that the Sub-Inspector of Police had sent one Police Constable to the petitioner only once. It is further stated that subsequently, respondents 1 and 2 have not interfered with the petitioner's activities.

In view of the statement made in the counter-affidavit, which is not controverted by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the cause in the writ petition does not survive for consideration.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as infructuous.
